FOREWORD

The Greeks had a word for it, this equality which has become the pattern of our living — the Greeks knew it as Isos. Because their word symbolizes to us the exquisite symmetry of their living, we have built about it a record of the life that is measured and balanced by the kids we know, the sun and rain we see, the things we do here in Lincoln. . . . These pages are the labor of a group. Upon them we have sought to record the pulse and breath of a life which derives its being from equality. It is the lusty good sportsmanship that makes one stamp and shout his way through football games with a hot dog in one hand and a red and black pom-pom in the other, the gay comradeship we share in the halls before the bell rings. Upon these pages lie the hours which we have spent in Lincoln. Here, in the black and gray and white of printer's ink, is the balance of our living. The Greeks knew it as Isos.

Loads of luck to a swell girl.

THE DICTIONARY CALLS IT "RECOGNITION OF RIGHTS," IN THAT SMUG, IMPERSONAL WAY DICTIONARIES HAVE ACQUIRED. BUT IT'S SOMETHING DEEPER THAN A FEW WORDS ON A PRINTED PAGE—IT'S AN ALMOST INDEFINABLE SOMETHING THAT GIVES EACH OF US, YOU, AND ME, AND THE GIRL BEHIND YOU IN STUDY, AN IDENTITY—SOMETHING THAT MAKES US MORE THAN NAMES ON FILE CARDS IN THE OFFICE. IT'S A FEELING THAT GOES A LITTLE DEEPER THAN THE SURFACE RIVALRIES AND MISUNDERSTANDINGS, THIS THING THE DICTIONARY CALLS "RECOGNITION OF RIGHTS." WE KNOW IT AS THE UNSPOKEN BOND WHICH EXISTS AMONG THE FACULTY, THE STUDENT LEADERS — AND US.

Congratulations to the Class of '40 which has been responsible for producing this attractive issue of Totem Annual! Recognition is due particularly to those boys and girls on the staff who have given many hours of thought and efforts to its production. As their fellow students leaf through its pages, few will give even a passing thought—much less a "Thank you"—to those who toiled to prepare an annual of which the student body is justly proud. . . . Is such service worthwhile? Ask the editor and the business manager and their assistants and I think they will tell you that it is, that it has yielded to each of them large returns in happiness and lasting satisfaction. . . . If some find school uninteresting and dull it is generally because they see in it nothing but lessons to be learned and to be recited. They see no connection between today's task and the "tomorrow" that seems to them so far away. There are countless opportunities in Lincoln, as in any large high school, for participation in the life of the school that will give new interest and zest. Athletics, dramatics, debate, photography, radio, stage force or traffic squad, music or committee work—these are but a few of the long list of special subjects and activities from which a student may choose. There is no good reason why every student should not be able to find something that will add pleasure and profit to school days and to all the years that follow.

Teachers, for most of us, cease to exist after the 3:10 bell other than in the form of history and algebra assignments. In order to prove that they are actually normal human beings, interested in doing the same things that your parents or your neighbors do, we delved into their "private lives" and brought to light their interests and specialties for you to see. Nicknames that they have acquired around school also add color to these people labeled teachers. Here they are from A to Z. Glance around these few pages and maybe you will wake up to the fact that teachers are real people and that real things like cameras, skiing, travel, and families are the things that make them tick.

Busy Bodies

THE CABINET forms the nucleus of school activity. It pours tea and publishes its own miniature magazine with equal ease. These girls are the vertebrae of the Girls' Club.

Pulchritude Plus

1140 GIRLS can be a quantity of lipstick and skirts and saddle shoes—1140 girls can't be wrong. They know when their club needs something in the way of leadership. Up there, looking efficient and not a little proud of the offices, are the girls whom we chose for their capability as well as their charm. Say, you three back there—look up; now, smile! (Oh, well, maybe it was a good book.)

BOARD OF CONTROL:

Row I—McLennan, Sutherland, Whiteside, Croy.

Row II—McFarland, Robinson, King, Perkins.

OFFICERS—

Perkins—President

King—Secretary

Sutherland—Vice-President

Plenipotentiaries

WHEN THERE'S A BIG PROBLEM drifting about waiting to be solved, the Board of Control leaps to its horse to do battle (not a plug for Hi Ho Silver). What to do about congestion in the halls, the award assembly, the rummy caught smoking during second lunch . . . ? Look, fellas, let's . . .

The Big Shots

IT'S A MAN'S WORLD; Gordy Perkins and his contemporaries have made that world a pretty swell place for the tie (?) wearing, loud-shirt-boosting men about Lincoln. This year the affairs of the Boys' Club lay in the capable hands which are attached to those self-conscious arms belonging respectively to Gordon Perkins, Norm King and Starr Sutherland.

The Women

IF IT'S SOMETHING NEAT and helpful and feminine in a white sweater, it's probably a Triple L girl. And if she immediately displays a deep regard for a Ski Show that was presented after school, then you know. The success of the Ski Show was complete and . . . well, complete. Colossal, stupendous, gigantic? You supply the adjectives.

High Moguls

ANY TIME there's something big going on about school, you usually find one of these thirty handy-men in the thick of it. Contrary to the general consensus of opinion, the boys in the black sweaters with the Lynx heads on their chests are not lion trainers. In fact, they know very little about lions. But if it's a Thanksgiving basket to be delivered, or an assembly, or a lost Freshman—if there's anything to be fixed, the Lynx boys will do it.

PAT CUNNINGHAM
President Triple L Club.

BEN CASHMAN
President Lynx Club,
2nd semester.

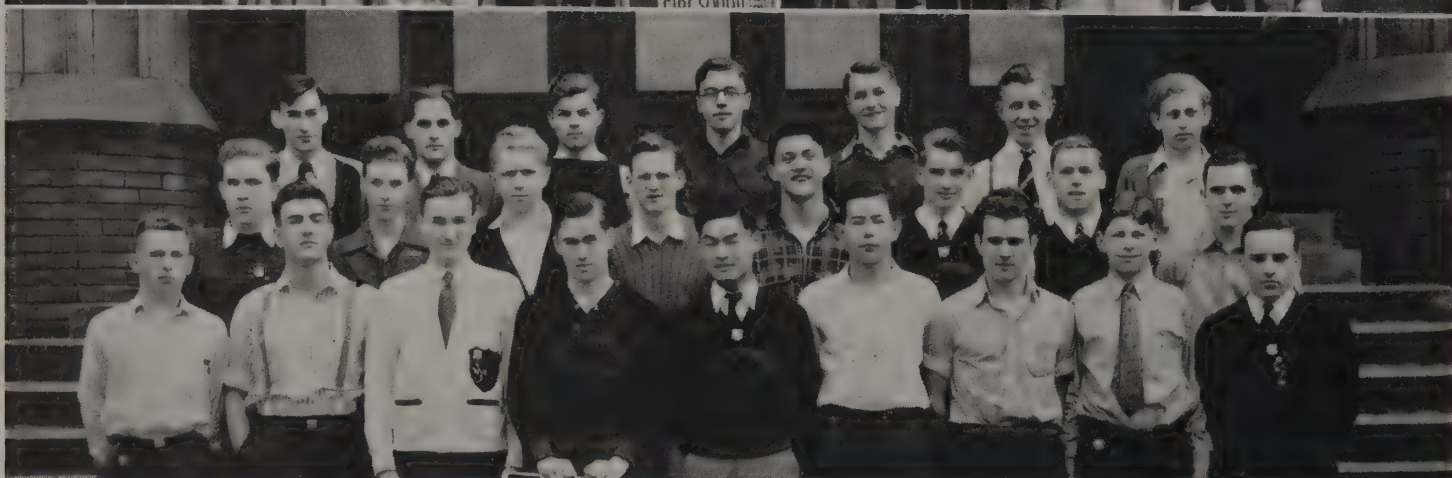

DICK SEED
President Lynx Club,
1st semester.

Service with a Capital "L"

THE HERO WORSHIPING FRESHMAN casts covetous eyes on service sweaters and emblems. To him they are the high ups, the big say sos around school. Sure, sweaters are nice—they keep you warm—you're one of the people who have earned the right to wear one. . . . The kids who comprise the Triple L and Lynx Clubs have won their recognition. Sometimes some one who serves can't be distinguished by a sweater. Sure, sweaters are nice, but if you haven't one, the results of the service is reward. It is not all within an honor pin or a sweater. Service is much the same, no matter what the title.

Bouncers

FOOTBALL FANS, carried away in their enthusiasm to patronize a football game, clamber over the fence to avoid paying, or loyal Lincoln pop-bottle-wavers deciding it is time to do something about the face and general appearance of the referee and set out to commit mayhem are confronted by a long arm and a shiny badge. Behind the badge and the arm are the brawn and muscle of the Field Patrol.

Holding the Bag

LUNCH BAGS are elusive little things. We aim right at the trash can and . . . oops! Missed again! Humans are egotistical wretches; very probably we go bouncing off with gay disregard for our poor shooting. Enter the hero, with his jaw set in a firm line, ready to do battle for the Building and Grounds Committee. It is his job to encourage a rousing good business for the trash cans.

Pasters

BOOKS AND GLUE POTS and overdue book notices are a part of the daily fare of the Library Staff. If we should absent-mindedly begin to wonder out, with the Atlas tucked beneath an arm (a highly improbable assumption), we should be borne down upon by several worthy members of the Staff. Other members mend and patch patiently the little rips that could be big tears. They even set broken backs—for books, of course.

Mercuries

MONDAY MORNINGS are hard enough without having the added misery of having to tear ourselves away from our last dime. No matter how longingly or tenderly we regard the little brown envelope with our collective dimes concealed in it, the stamp messengers always go through the same procedure. Inexorably they bear away our money. But the dimes are well-forfeited, for when Friday afternoon creeps up, there are the Totem weeklies, and at the end of the year, joy of joys, out totters the Annual.

BEHIND THE GREEN VELVET AND THE DIMMING GLOW OF THE HOUSE LIGHTS, AND THE SUDDEN PALE FINGER OF THE SPOT, THE KIDS LOOK AT EACH OTHER AND KNOW THAT BENEATH THAT LOOK THEY ARE REMEMBERING CUES, AND GESTURES, AND THE LINES THEY'VE PRACTICED CAREFULLY ALL THOSE NIGHTS AND AFTERNOONS WHEN THE SCHOOL WAS SO STRANGELY QUIET. THIS, THE SAME INCLINATION—ALL THE THINGS THAT BECOME A PART OF AN OPERETTA OR A STAGE SHOW, EVERYBODY'S WORKING FOR THAT MOMENT WHEN THE CURTAIN SLIDES UP. WE'RE OUT HERE, AND THEY, UP THERE IN THE SPOT-LIGHT. ALL OF US HAVE THE SAME INCLINATION.

And it was ours . . . for it gave the Seniors a chance to suit their personalities to the characters. They did it well.

"Ladies of the Jury" became an integral part of the Senior Class of '40 — part of Lincoln. It was ours.

MIKADO

"Give way, give way, to the Lord High Executioner!" . . . There was music, quaint music, in which figured titwillows and unrequited love. There was humor: ridiculous contrasts and accents which might have been pure Japanese, but which had a suspicious hybrid cast, as if there had been a slight misunderstanding with a Turk and an Arabian during rehearsals — but they were very noble accents. There was a wandering minstrel — there's always a wandering minstrel — and lovely ladies, and even an Emperor.

The "Mikado" could not be ignored. For days the hall flaunted posters and bright banners acclaiming it. We weren't disappointed. There, before the deep blue of a Japanese setting, we watched a Japanese farce unroll, watched white clothed coolies and slant-eyed girls with bright flowers in their hair; and through the color and light, there was music.

Hants Hit Lincoln

IT ISN'T ALL FROTH, pink champagne and cucumber sandwiches in the Star Loft. This year work, wear, and tear brought about "Ghosts," an ambitious choice of production amply justified by the finesse of its performance. . . "Ghosts" proved a reiteration of the success of the policy of Lincoln's "Star Loft" to give small intimate audiences a taste of good theater. Our repertory theater wins well deserved orchids for its presentation of this difficult play—its absolute candidness of production, and the excellent characterization of the cast. . . With Mr. Kerr's skilled direction and Mr. Philippi's effective settings, Lincoln's "Star Loft" and other dramatic undertakings have attained a finish and smooth spontaneity seldom achieved in amateur productions.

Hypochondriac

ANOTHER SATELLITE of the "Star Loft" sprinkled and sputtered its way to a comet-tailed success beside "Ghosts." "Imaginary Invalid" was the name. It didn't roll 'em in the aisles simply because the "Star Loft's" architect didn't allow for rolling space . . . but the audience found it a pleasant way to lose an afternoon.

WHAT WOULD YOU LIKE TO BE? A bald-headed judge . . . a Chinese coolie . . . a lovely lady? Give these experts a bit of paint, a hunk of cloth, and there you have it, your finished product. With ease they paint on scowls or arched eyebrows or camouflaged stripes. The girls with their needles and the kids with their fingers in the paint pots: they are the Make-Up and Costume Committees.

Boiglers?

THOSE LOUD NOISES that interrupt things now and then—the anonymous feet that wander absent-mindedly across the stage when the curtain isn't quite down—those aren't boiglers. They're just the brain and brawn of the stage force, shifting scenes. Somebody get that sand bag outta my way. . . .

Stub Tenders and Loud Speakers

WHEN THE TICKET WINDOW went up this year, there behind the brown sill, exchanging little green or yellow or red cardboards for money were the girls on the ticket force. They held the Aladdin's Lamp that opened the door to the things that went on about Lincoln—the opera, and Senior Play, and concerts.

IF THE CURRENT SPEAKER should suddenly cease to be audible, and if a Mike Squad boy, prematurely gray about the temples, should be seen, we would know the Public Address System was being temperamental again. Mr. Rodenhouse's bright boys know all the intricacies of amplifying the right noises.

STARR SUTHERLAND, tennis tutor, drops the history book for the tennis racket with complete ease. He turns out fighting teams year after year.

CLARENCE WASSBERG is the moulder of tomorrow's golf great. His unsung teams are always near the top.

SHIRLEY BOSELLY cracks a sharp whip over his baseball charges and they usually come through. His teams are always fighting in the first division.

BILL NOLLAN'S decade of head-coaching here has done no more than to mellow his thundering throat. He is still spurring the most feared teams in the city on to victories in football, basketball, and track.

CARL "WOODY" ULLIN leaves Lincoln next fall to coach West Seattle's gridders. We'll miss him.

VERN THOMPSON is the pal of every student from the lowliest to the greatest. He polishes out the rough yearlings that they may be polished into real stars.

Football

"IF WE'RE EVER GOING TO HAVE A FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP, this is the year," Coach Bill Nollan had said. And it seemed as if he was right. With a ten-letterman eleven, averaging 189 pounds to the man, the Lincoln team boomed through their first opponents with little trouble, defeating West Seattle 13-0, Queen Anne 21-7, and Broadway 27-0. They were hailed as an "invincible eleven"—a "wonder team" by the local newspapers. Then came that "Black Friday" when the eleven red men swaggered across the turf to do battle with a puny Ballard team, hopelessly outclassed on paper. At the opening whistle the surprised Lynx were knocked on their ears and kept there for forty minutes by a keyed-up Beaver team who finally won 7-0. After that loss Lincoln's battle song turned from ballad to grim dirge as they set themselves for the title-bound Roughriders of Roosevelt. They battled hard in that game but were outclassed by a faster charging team grabbing at the breaks. Against Cleveland they were a smooth-working squad, clicking better than they had all season and winning 25-0. In the Charity Game play-off against Queen Anne, All-city men Frank Fox and Walt Blanchard stood out as the nine seniors won their last game for Lincoln, 13-6.

Basketball

THERE IS A TRADITION being established at Lincoln. A tradition that every third year will bring a championship basketball team to the school. Following in the victory-strewn wake of a third-year team, 1940's hoop squad found the going plenty tough. . . Conceded a second division berth before they started, the Railsplitters struggled through their first three games without a win. Then George Glavin and Hal Haynes, seniors, returned to the ranks and the locals were able to win three of their last seven games and make it tough for every team they played. This last effort boosted Lincoln into fifth position in the standings with 3 wins and 9 losses. . . The Abes reached their peak when, in their second meeting with Queen Anne, they fought on even terms with the title-winners for three quarters only to drop behind in the last period and lose by nine points. . . Returning next year to bolster the team is a host of lettermen, so it appears that the three-year cycle may be shortened to two years.

WITH THE 1939 BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP bells still pealing sweetly, the student spectators began preparing themselves for a similarly victory-laden season of baseball. . . Prospects looked good, George Glavin and Charlie Parks made Lincoln's pitching almost perfect. Vic Donaldson was again behind the plate and lettermen like Norm Dalthorp, Forry Smith, Frank Fox, Dean McKay, Loren Hume, and George O'Malley were all back from the undefeated team of 1938 and ready to take top honors again. . . But then somebody threw a curveball into the works. In fact several people began throwing curveballs. As a result, 1939 was a lean year for the hitters and the Railsplitters lost game after game by close scores because of ineffective hitting. However, some brilliant pitching gave the Lynx a majority of the decisions and they were able to finish out of the second division and salvage a little of their lost glory. . . Hi-light of the year was the 6-5 loss to Franklin, a game that went fourteen and five-sixth innings before the winning run was scored. And several similar battles served to give the spectators their money's worth. This season was a good one for someone to say: "Anything can happen and I guess it did!"

Baseball

Track

FOR THE FIRST TIME in seven long years, Lincoln thinclads toppled from track supremacy and bowed to Queen Anne and Broadway. A crop of green but budding underclassmen represented Lincoln on the cinder path and surprised sideliners by finishing third. 1939 marked the first loss in regular meets for five years when Queen Anne and Garfield combined to spike the peerless record of Lincoln's cindermen. A measure of success came with the recovery of the All-city relay Carnival's trophy, which had been sticking in Garfield's craw since 1938.

1940's CREW was nearly 1939's squad intact; only two graduating seniors left the fold. Sans hair, the 1940 squad sprinted between classes in their hurry to turn out after school. In remarkable shape after extensive winter training, they looked capable of giving a good account of themselves this year.

Tennis

THE YEAR 1939 was a comparatively poor one for the Abe racketeers; it found them stuck in 7th place with two wins and five losses. These two lone victories were acquired at the expense of the Broadway Tigers and Ballard's cellar-dwelling Beavers. When the Lynx upset the Tigers, they destroyed the Bengals' title hopes, while the win over Ballard merely entrenched that school in last place and saved Lincoln from utter humiliation. . . There were four lettermen returning from this squad to help pad out the 1940 team and promise a pretty fair season for Lincoln tennis.

Golf

LINCOLN'S 1939 GOLF TEAM landed in 5th place with 5 victories and 3 losses when Cleveland climbed over their heads with a one point victory to take 2nd place in an early season game. Victories were scored over the Queen Anne and Franklin squads at the start of the season, but defeats at the hands of the league leading Roosevelt and Ballard teams brought down Lincoln's average. The season ended on a brighter note when wins were scored against West Seattle and Garfield. . . Of the eight boys receiving big L's two returned in 1940 for another year of play.

Athletic Council

THE ATHLETIC COUNCIL does its work well in maintaining a high level in Lincoln sports. Behind the scenes they pull the wires that keep the Lincoln squad morale high.

Intramurals

ORGANIZED chiefly for those who lack the size or ability to enter major sports, the intramural program is open to any student with the desire to play basketball, touch football, handball, ping pong, or tennis. This set-up gives excellent athletic opportunities to many who otherwise would not have them. It also builds muscles.

Girls' Instructors • Athletic Council

AS IN ALL ACTIVITIES in which many participate, girls' sports must be supervised. Lincoln girls are fortunate in having as their advisers, Miss Katherine Wolfe, Miss Pauline Thompson, and Miss Helen Hull. Each of these teachers is noted in her special field: Miss Wolfe in modern dance, Miss Thompson in clogging, and Miss Hull in general athletics. . . Student advisers are the members of the Girls' Athletic Council, who are also the managers of the various seasonal sports.

Feminine Pastimes

AS IS ATLANTA, AS IS DIANA, so are the modern athletes in the Lincoln feminine world. Representing the typical sportettes are the members of the Big "L" and Little "L", Lincoln's clubs for the girl athlete. . . Led by faculty sponsor Miss Pauline Thompson and President Helen Johnson, the Big "L" Club has maintained a successful record for the year 1939-1940. Keeping their eye on the ball, their feet on the ground, and a step ahead of the next fellow, they have achieved the perfect balance of equality and versatility on the athletic field. . . No less noted than their senior participants for their achievements in girls' sports are the members of the Little "L", who are well advised by Miss Katherine Wolfe.

HOCKEY: Row 1—C. March, Bates, Elliott, Day, Arnst. Row 2—Johnson, F. March, Marshall, Grey. Row 3—Himmelman, Salvesson, Medine, D. Bowman, Berg, M. Bowman.

Hockey

ONE HAS TO BE A SPARTAN to play hockey and one has to be a good Spartan to be on the winning hockey team. It is no trifle to follow that small puck down a muddy field on a cold autumn day, not to mention the hazard of swinging sticks.

Volleyball

VOLLEYBALL IS NOT A SISSY GAME. If you doubt these words, you have only to watch the winning team in action to admit you were wrong. Their efforts, in winning the championship of Lincoln, were to be given full credit.

Wise Guys

QUICK! WHAT'S 39X246, 249, 950, 375? And darned if they don't know the answer! (But then who wants to argue about it?) They can even look their teachers in the eye when assignments are due. They rush homeward on eager feet to deliver report cards to proud parents, to receive parental adulation and perhaps even a little more in the way of compensation. See that? That's a torch pin.

Jr. Wise Guys

TO FILL IN THE GAPS and supply the answers the Seniors don't know, there has been the aid of the Junior and Sophomore Honor Societies. They can prove the answers.

The Winchells

VARIETY and a new set of editors. . . Variety and the Totem Weekly. . Wednesday afternoons crept up unnoticed and then streaked away from beneath their unsuspecting noses. Deadlines were unpopular. But the Totem Weekly thrived and grew mellow (not like cheese) and we enjoyed it.

ANNUAL STAFF: Row 1--Davis, Krum, Porter, Wyman, King, Ryder-Smith. Row 2--Shapiro, Stroud, Diers, Henning. Row 3--Stoko, Buelow, Braley, Tanaka, Sheedy, Griemes, Foy, Malcolm.

Malcolm--Editor

Ryder-Smith--Associate Editor

Wyman--Copy Editor

Henning--Business Manager

The Angle Worms

"WHO'S THE WORM who left the cover off the typewriter?" Wildly we sought to meet our deadlines and preserve our sanity—to get out an Annual before the middle of August. We complained a lot and glared at each other—even our red-headed editor, even the art editor darkly glowering at layouts, and the wench in the corner who chewed away eleven good pencils trying to cut 400 words of copy to thirty. So now, if we look a trifle frayed at the edges and have bags under our eyes, and don't look too enthusiastic when someone says "Sign my Annual,"—don't mind too much, will you?

*Hi Dave, Boy, you're sure on super kid, hon and I'm sure you know you so well (hi hi)
I'll see you

DEBATE TEAM: Row 1—Mechelsen, Miller, Mr. Cochran, Stoerchli, Smart, Myers. Row 2—Cashman, Nelson, Wilkison, Basher, Strong, Seed, Boos.

Town Meeting

LOUD SHOUTS creeping from under the crack of Mr. Cochran's door, any sixth period, are not the results of torture or pleading. They are expressions of joy as the lusty-larynxed proponents of argument launch themselves into the fray. It's in their blood, like measles. Well, maybe not measles. Don't glower when they trip you up in your conversation and point out all the flaws and weaknesses. Income taxes? The Board of Foreign Relations? Who killed Cock Robin? Now, it's this way . . .

Pen Pounders

MORE POWERFUL than the sword is the pen, wielded by those supposedly literary gifted of that mysterious organization, the Squill and Scroll—er, the Quill and Scroll. They had meetings, they wrote thingamajiggers on Lincoln's deep, dark past . . . they descended upon Mr. Bergh and partially demolished his summer home during their annual picnic. What is it? Gosh, they don't know . . . they just work here!

Literates

"WHO-DONE-IT" stories weren't discovered in the twentieth century—a who-done-it story was much the same when Poe was staying up late to converse with the raven. But the Readers' Club could probably give forth all the ghastly details. Reading is their hobby. Books and they are close companions.

*I'm wishing you

Para Los Estudiantes Espanoles

IF YOU HAVE NEVER wondered what was on the other side of a tamale or how to wrap your tongue about the mazes of "Popocatepetl," then you've never wondered what went on when the Spanish Club converged. Spain isn't all across 3,000 miles of Atlantic. Much of it is attached to the other half of our America, and there's even a little piece right here in Lincoln. . . Our Spaniards had puppet shows and learned Spanish games—enjoyed music that had the glow and sparkle of the Latin personality. Our piece of Spain is the Spanish Club.

FRENCH CLUB (Group I): Row 1—Kelley, Lewis, Morris, Erickson, Batten, Moore, Villata, Woolery, Ton, Williams, Arnst, Capps. Row 2—Legg, Weston, Yapp, Hiskin, Weiser, Porter, Horning, McDevitt, Mignon, Jerome, Davis, Davis, M. Row 3—Gustafson, Saunders, Wright, Beck, Cameron, Wilson, Nelson, Ewan, Cragg, Walker, Maurer, Phillips. Row 5—Bolan, Peek, Zavales, Kirkham, Scovill, Tautfest, Mullen, Lindroth, Cunningham, Cunningham, Hall, Lonsberry, Thurman.

"N'est-ce pas?"

FRENCH CAN SERVE as something besides a college entrance requirement. These clubsters learned French songs and dances deep-dyed with tradition. They found new companionship and activity through the study of a language. They learned that a language can be an opportunity to make new friends as well as to learn more about the culture France has scattered with a liberal hand and a "... N'est-ce pas?"

Not Ghosts

EACH YEAR, comes the Ides of March, Caesar is deprived of his dignity, yea, even his life. The ominous, toga-clad assassins who descend upon the innocent man are merely the boys from across the aisle, wrapped in their mothers' sheets, reenacting their annual play. The Romans don't spend all their time in sheets, however. The Latin club has activity unbounded—but one could expect no less from people who murder Caesar every year.

GERMAN CLUB (Group I): Row 1—Batchelor, Horn, Munsell, Stoerchli, Stoerchli, Murray, Fox, Daymude, Richardson, Soeneke, Wheeler, Loewe. Row 2—Naylor, Paulson, Millan, Speidel, Oren, Potts, Daudistel, Hubbard, Laws, Lider. Row 3—Boddy, Seaton, Norgren, Jensen, Tollber, Swanson, Tischbein, Chaffee. Row 4—Dillon, Bowen, Gage, Grunbeis, Moore, Kienholz.

No Pretzels

"BITTE, SITZEN SIE SICH!" . . . "Great Scott! I'm in the wrong room!" . . . To the unoffending interloper (is there such a beast?) it might seem that he had by accident become ensnared in the complexities of a Nazi spy ring. But it's only the German Club, the rarin'-to-go young club which enjoys motion pictures and has all the latest information on trundling through the Father Land on a bicycle.

Horn Blowers

THE BIG NOISE around Lincoln is the Publicity Council, the power behind the football games, the drive that makes the opera a greater success, the punch and swing and clever advertising that puts things over with more than a feeble pop. These are our professional horn blowers, with something to blow about.

HOOK, LINE, AND SINKER CLUB: Row 1—Beeler, Goodwin, Buckley, Bowman, Dickson, Bowman, Lyman, Walton, McGonigle. Row 2—Olson, Jensen, Horning, Rief, Wallace, Landry, Houghton, Carter, Laws. Row 3—Nelson, Walmsley, Brinck, Baker, Mechelsen, Nelson, Langlow, Trysh, Kienholz.

Poor Fish

ANY OLD WORMS, old flies, old fishing tackle? Come along! Enjoy the fish and let the fish enjoy your innocent attempts to catch the ones that always get away . . . and if you don't catch anything but bull heads and willow twigs, there's always that big one that walked off with your line and a can of worms.

Conservationists

THEY'RE NOT WILD-EYED RADICALS looking for an excuse to start a revolution, but they do have very definite opinions concerning what should be done about it all: depletion of our forests, conservation of our land, control of our rivers, even (perhaps they work hand in hand with the fishermen of Lincoln) the conservation of our fish.

FROSH-SOPH GIRLS' GLEE: Row 1—Newland, Dodson, Norton, Upcraft, Svardal, Renlie, Coleman, Welch, Clarke, Sours, Butterworth. ## Bath Tub Songsters

WE ALL LIKE TO SING—even if we do keep our talents hidden away in the bath tub. The Glee Clubs afford the opportunity—they do the vocalizing.

*I don't know you very well but I'd guess we like to.
Bob*

We and the Larks

THE CHANTERS STAND and let the melody soar. We hear only music; we forget the long hours of practice, the days when they had to repeat one portion to perfect the harmony, or learn the intricacies of a chord. We hear the music and it is ours in perfection. All our eyes are on the girls and boys in the red and white sweaters . . . Mr. Pitzer raises his arms, and there is music.

Long Hairs

ONCE WE SAW a picture of a musician with long hair, and decided it was a fine idea to evade the monthly hair cut. But there was the necessity of learning to play an instrument, of practicing when we might have been out playing baseball on the corner lot. Now we're in the orchestra, and the practice was worth it.

Being a stupid fool from (Franklin) I can't say more than Hello. Vic. I

ISOMERIC

WE ARE A WHOLE MADE UP OF MANY EQUAL PARTS — NOT BECAUSE THE ONE WHO SHUFFLED THE CARDS ORDAINED THAT THE FRESHMEN SHOULD BE ON THE BOTTOM OF THE STACK, OR THAT THE SOPHOMORE AND JUNIOR CLASSES SHOULD BE TRANSITIONS, OR THAT THE SENIORS WOULD BE NEAR THE TOP OF THE PILE, BUT BECAUSE WE ARE ONE IN BEING YOUNG, IN LIVING. PERHAPS A SENIOR IS A SENIOR BECAUSE HE GETS THE CAR ON FRIDAY NIGHTS, OR BECAUSE SHE WEARS ORCHIDS ON MONDAY MORNING. OR PERHAPS FRESHMEN ARE FRESHMEN BECAUSE THEY ARE A LITTLE SMALLER AND EASIER TO TEASE. . . . OUR AWARENESS OF CLASS DIVISIONS IS A CASUAL ONE, ONLY BECAUSE IN THAT AWARENESS THERE IS A CERTAIN EQUALITY. ISOMERIC — THE WHOLE MADE UP OF MANY EQUAL PARTS. . . .

We tried awfully hard not to look hazy and green and lost, but the upper-classmen always knew. Maybe the maps we carried of Lincoln gave us away, or maybe Freshmen are just Freshmen and there's nothing to be done about it. We did something, though . . . we elected Dale Dean, Janet Davis, Ben Kosa to the authoritative positions of President, Vice-President and Secretary. We've grown up a lot. We don't look lost, now, when someone sends us on an errand to the "Star Loft," or down to the Botany gardens. We don't look for elevators, either—and roof gardens. Why, we know all about roof gardens . . . We were . . . .

After two years, we got used to the way the sun slanted down from the windows in Study, the little hollows in the steps, the long, long green velvet drapes in the Auditorium. We learned to copy the casual air of the upper classmen about the assemblies and the football games, and after a bit, we were part of Lincoln. We found out about elections in our Freshman year, and selected for President, Ray Caley; with Charles Davis, Vice-President; and Mary Louise Garland, Secretary. . . . We aren't so big, yet. In a couple more years we shall have learned to do all the things you know how to do. We're the . . . . .

Being a Junior is sort of hard—we weren't quite the bosses by a superiority of age, and we weren't underclassmen. We... well, we were Juniors. Lloyd Taylor, President; Fred Greives, Vice-President; and Jean Marie Waltzien, our Secretary, eased us over the transitional stage. They directed a year of activity, of dances in the lunchroom after school, slipping and sliding around on a floor that was too slippery in spots and like sawdust in others. We did all the things the Seniors did—well, almost all the things. We got into the swing of being an upper-classman. It wasn't so bad—next year we'll be the big shots. This year we did a swell job of being . . . . .

Dear Aunt

Just took a long time finding our empty space.
I'm so worried now that I can hardly write.
I hope to go to the party yesterday & it's beginning to worry me.

I hope I can keep it up
if anyone.

Dear Irene:

I love you dear, you know I do even though you don't even know me. Yes, I'm the guy that sits in F-Q-4 sixth period. Don't flirt with too many boys or they'll be like I am now. Well, to cut this thing short I hope you have a swell time in the future (and I do mean you)

Yr. truly Betty

P.S. The name doesn't mean anything to you.

We set the pace. We wore Sloppy Joes and loud shirts and moccasins and green slickers and bubble beads, and so did you. One Senior Week, we scared everybody half-silly wearing odd shoes and enormous bow ties. We elected those nice people up there to be our guiding lights: Ralph Larson, gavel-waver-in-chief; Betty Siemens, vice-gavel-waver; Rosamond Albright, wielder of the pen; and Mary Robertson, counter of the coins. . . . It wasn't much different, this year, only all of a sudden we began to realize rather mistily the point of hauling ourselves out from beneath the covers five times each week. So maybe we didn't stroll about looking superior and pseudo-wise as we had been waiting three years to do. Sure, we're . . . . .

You're swell, Irene and cute too! Have fun + be good —

*Dol Bowman

ENDING IT ALL!

THOSE SIX PEOPLE UP THERE are very probably mumbling commencement day speeches under their camera grins. And very probably the grins are quite as broad as grins can be, because the people behind the grins have been chosen to represent the graduating class of '40. . . Marjorie Megginson and Bill Lainhart were chosen because of their grade points to be Valedictorian and Salutatorian respectively. The Seniors stopped the school with a riotous assembly to select Ruby Watland and Gordy Perkins as the students' choices. Lucy Kimpton and Ben Cashman won the unanimous vote of the Faculty. . . Take a good look at them—when you see them over the rows of white shoes, dark coats and the froth of pastels; you'll remember.

I S O S

THERE WE ARE — IT DIDN'T MATTER WHETHER WE WERE SENIORS WITH A LINE OF STARS AND LETTERS FROM SHOULDER TO SHOULDER, OR JUST A COUPLE OF SOPHOMORES PLAYING HAND BALL; EVERYBODY WAS EQUAL TO THE CAMERA. . . . DO YOU REMEMBER THAT AFTER-NOON IN GYM AT THE FATEFUL BASKETBALL GAME WHEN WE FELL — OR THAT DAY WHEN THE WIND HAD TAKEN ALL THE CURL FROM OUR HAIR AND SLAPPED THE RED INTO OUR CHEEKS? AND THEN, JUST BY CHANCE WE LOOKED UP, AND THERE WAS ONE OF THOSE CANDID CAMERA FIENDS HANGING BY HIS HEELS FROM A TREE OR DOWN IN THE GRASS FLAT ON HIS STOMACH TO GET AN ANGLE SHOT OF US. DO YOU REMEMBER? THESE ARE THE CANDID SHOTS WITH A KICK.

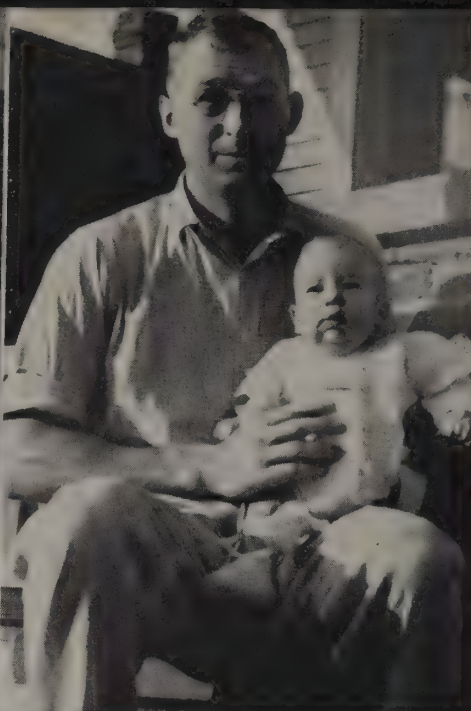

The pattern in light and shadow was woven this year by Gordon Foy, top-runner in the Candid Contest. He saw the color and motion of our hours in school. We see it now, through his candid.

Dear Irene,
Well, kid, we certainly do have some super memories. Skiing, the ocean and everything else. I can't ever forget them. When you stop and think back on all we've done it seems like it would have taken five years to do it. Maybe we're just fast, huh? Just think, we even learned to dance together. I think it is swell the way we started out together, but too bad we kind of broke away. I had so awful much to write but now I don't know how to put it into words. Remember the Sat. nights and Sunday we spent at home taking care of Ernie? How, what fun.
The G. S. L. dances we took in, and the Sun. shows at 45th when we didn't know any better. Well, you were a swell friend and you're still a good dancer. We still have two more years and I hope you have the very best of luck and success. See you around in the future. Be good.

An old pal.

Zebita

Hankins

("Zee")

P.S. There are many other memories too, — some of which I wouldn't mention.

Dear Ricky,
I think you
a swell gal and I hope I see a lot of you this summer.
Maybe we can get together some time.
Love
Zebita

Dearest Irene,
 To the cute little brunette who sure has gotten around + I know you'll have loads of fun in your future. You + Jean are 2 crazy nuts but I like people like that so there!! I really like you a lot + do have a swell time. Won't you?
 know you will -- those eyes!!!
 Love,
 Phoebe

So on awful little memory
 who not mention

Thank you for your letter

You're a real cute
 kid and a swell one I'd like to know you better. Lots of luck,

Best love to me and all yours

Just again and say
 Love a Phoebe

Dear Irene
 all the love of heart in the world
 to a very nice girl
 Phoebe

My darling Gene (Pickie) <sup>little</sup> thing -- you <sup>switch</sup> ~~switch~~
Well at last we have Annals.
Our first Annals isn't that cute though. Its too bad that we are P. S.'s cause it would be so nice to get others or don't you think so Now lets not kid one another.
You know what I say "Baigalles" or thats what Dan says. Bunkos to you!

REMEMBER!!!

- (1) Do not hesitate to forget the pleasant and entrancing days we spent at Edna's and how displeased we were when she closed.
- (2) We then ventured into the hctic P.T.A. dances and time soon showed no profit & progress.
- (3) It was a cloudy day and 3 charming girls you and I and some other girl (I'm displeased to say I have forgotten her name.) travelled to the "Shady Beach" wasn't that a horrible day.
- (4) A few more Sundays were spent in horror and I do mean horror but soon we were the most popular.
- (5) We started again to the P.T.A.'s
Oh it was fun at the Northend Nite Club (the J. R. I mean) and then something happened.
- (6) The shows were wonderful and we saw every show in town.
The good old Embassy.
- (7) At last we began to rise for Shady opened again. Oh! Boy are we going strong.

Well Chantler I sure have enjoyed going to different schools with you.

(Do you doubt me?) your Only Friend, James Patrick
